RECOMMENDED SOURCES OF STUDY WITH KRISTY L. CHRISTIAN

- Lonely Planet's Travel Book:
Israel and the Palestinian Territories
*(highly recommended)
 - Reader's Digest Publication:
Jesus and His Times
(although for children, this book has a lot of good information on the background history of Palestine during Jesus' time)
 - Jerusalem, One City, Three Faiths
by Karen Armstrong
 - Jesus and the Forgotten City
by Richard A. Batey
(this book is about the town of Sepphoris, which is about 4 miles from Nazareth; we will visit Sepphoris)
 - Jerusalem, Song of Songs
by Leon and Jill Uris
(I have not read it, but it looked interesting)
 - Jerusalem, The Holy City
by F.E. Peters
 - The Footsteps of Israel
by Samuel Greenwood (Greenwood is a Christian Scientist who lived during Mrs. Eddy's time; he wrote a lot of articles for the periodicals; the book might be hard to find, but worthwhile to read if you can locate it)
 - The Splendor of the Holy Land
by Robert Payne
 - King Herod's Dream, Caesarea on the Sea
by Kenneth G. Holum, Robert L. Hohlfelder, Robert J. Bull, Avner Raban
 - George Adam Smith. The Historical Geography of the Holy Land. London: Hodder & Stoughton Ltd., 1894, reprinted 1966.
 - The Biblical Archaeology Society
www.bib-arch.org
(and search for articles on the Holy Land. Go to the "Back Issues" tool bar and under the listing of years click on a year and look for topics such as: Qumran, Megiddo, the Galilee Boat, Reconstructing Herod's Temple, the Temple Mount, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Galilee, Caesarea Maritima, the Dead Sea, Masada, etc).
 - www.travelbookstoisrael.com (has several options on travel books that might be of interest).
 - www.bibleplaces.com
(has all the sites in Israel listed with a brief background on each location).
 - www.sacred-destinations.com
(is another web site with photos on Holy Land sites. Click on the Middle East tool bar, then scroll down to Israel. Click on any site of interest. There is also a time line of Jerusalem listed).
